

Further information regarding Source, Industry, Derivation, Original Place of Use and Period of Use may be available from the Federation Dialect Recorder, Paul Phillips, Casterills Road, Helston TR13 8BJ 01326 573317 paul.downside@gmail.com

<h1>Y</h1>
Word	Meaning
YAFFER	heifer
YAFFLE	A loose armful. To pull about
YAFFUL	a handful or armful
YALLER	Yellow
YAM	To eat greedily
YAP	A short snapping bark of a dog
YARBS	Herbs
YARK	Sudden jerk or pull. "He gived the rein such a yark, 'e nearly pulled the bit through the back of the 'oss's mouth."
YARKS /YORKS	Straps worn below knees to keep legs of trousers out of mud
YAS	Yes / Agreement
YAW	Sheep / Ewe
YAW	You
YELLER	Yellow
YELLOW-JANDERS	Jaundice
YES	See Jago P. 314
YET	Gate. "Best shut the yet on our way out, there's cows in that field." They also served to prevent dragging when bending he knees. Childern were told they were to stop snakes crawlin' up yer leg! I remembwer the local council hedge trimmer used to wear them.
YEWE	A arming implement / A dung fork
YIT	Yet
YOURN	Yours
YOCK / YERK / YOLK	the greasy impurity of a sheeps fleece
YOU / YEW / YOW	You. Doesn't 'yow' sound much more convivial amongst friends than 'you'?
YOWLIN'	Howling. Crying in distress
YOU PARTY	Used when addressing a group of people. Perhaps you're at the adult Sunday School tea party, the lady serving at the end of table might say to you all, "You party, want moore taa do ee?"
YUCK	to hiccough
YUCK	A yoke / An ox-yoke. Formerly 'Breachy' pigs had yokes tied around their necks to prevent them climbing hedges.
YUZON	A manger or feeding trough

Further information regarding Source, Industry, Derivation, Original Place of Use and Period of Use may be available from the Federation Dialect Recorder, Paul Phillips, Casterills Road, Helston TR13 8BJ 01326 573317 paul.downside@gmail.com

26 words Additions 27.08. 2016 to be submitted.

Z
Word	Meaning
ZACKLEY	Exactly
ZACKLY/ZACKY	Exactly see Cousin-Jacky
ZAD	Sad
ZADE OR ZAPY	A blackhead / A fool
ZAM	Sam "Zam, pick up thy musket Zam."
ZAM-SAWDERED /ZAM ZOODLED	Anything ill-cooked or over cooked. "Dawn't be late fer yer dinner 't 'ill be all zam-zoodled."
ZANG	See sang. "Uncle Sam zang in the choir fer farty years!"
ZAPE or ZAPY	A blockhead or fool
ZAWKEMIN / ZAWKIN	stupid or thickheaded
ZAWKER	A dull stupid fellow
ZAWN	A sea cavern. Hole in cliff. A cleft or a rift in a sea cliff. Zawn equates to the Cornish word Chasm a sea inlet.
ZEER	worn out, aged, witherd, sere
ZESS / SESS	A great fat woman
ZEW	Work alongside a hole before breaking it down
ZIGHYR	underground slow stream of water
ZOG	See SOG
ZOGGY	See SOGGY "The ol' ground's a bit zoggy this mornin' mind yu we 'ad a guts full o' rain in the night."
ZOUNDY AWAY	To faint, to sink down
ZUKKY	To smarten-up. "To maak un zukky"
ZUR / SUR	Sir
ZYE / ALSO SYE	A Scythe

Submitted 25.06.2016
Additions done 28.07.2016 ready for submission
21 words Further additions to be submitted