

FEDERATION OF OLD CORNWALL SOCIETIES: WINTER FESTIVAL SATURDAY 4TH NOVEMBER 2017

AN INVITATION TO ALL OLD CORNWALL SOCIETIES.....A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

The Festival is to be hosted by Redruth Old Cornwall Society and is the second major event in our calendar for this year. Those of you familiar with the F.O.C.S. Festivals will know that this is an all day event and will be held at REDRUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL. Preparations are well in hand. There will be a variety of speakers, stalls and exhibitions depicting, William Murdoch, Thomas Merritt and the poet, John Harris staged by The Redruth Story Group and The John Harris Society. The Family History Society are delighted to be included and will be on hand to offer advice on researching your family history. Entertainment will be provided by Four Lanes Choir and the Red River Singers.

Further information regarding costs and booking forms for pasties etc. will be available to all Societies in September.

The venue is situated on a good level site with ample parking and easy access to all rooms, kitchen area and toilet facilities.

Do come and share this Festival with us.
