

REDRUTH OLD CORNWALL SOCIETY

GENERAL INFORMATION TO ALL SOCIETIES.....WINTER FESTIVAL

This year`s Festival is to be hosted by the REDRUTH O.C.S. and will be held at the Redruth Community School. The usual variety of stalls and displays have been arranged to include information on William Murdoch, Thomas Merritt and the poet John Harris. The Family History Society will be on hand to offer advice on researching your ancestors. Entertainment will be provided by Four Lanes Choir and Red River Singers.

Registration. 9.30am. Then there will be time to view displays and look around the stalls etc.

12.00 noon. Serve Pasties, followed by the afternoon programme that begins at

1.00 p.m. Parade of Society Banners, then Speakers and Entertainment

4.00 p.m. The day's events conclude with "Trelawny"

The venue is situated on a good level site with ample parking and easy access to all rooms, kitchen areas and toilet facilities.

STALLS AND DISPLAYS REPRESENTED AT THE FESTIVAL WILL INCLUDE :

1. The Family History Society
2. Redruth O.C.S. Museum
3. The John Harris Society
4. The Redruth Story Group
5. Carn Brea Mining Society
6. Gwennap Pit Trust
7. Cornish Language
8. Cornish Photographs (Greetings Cards)
9. Cornwall Wildlife Trust
- 10.St. Day Historical and Conservation Society
- 11.Federation Book Stall.....and more

We extend a warm welcome to all Societies to come and share this special occasion with us.

PLEASE SEND YOUR BOOKING FORM FOR LUNCH AND CHEQUE (one cheque for all, made payable to Redruth O.C.S.) TO THE SECRETARY:

MRS. ROSY HAWKING, "FAIRFIELD FARM", PENHALLOW, TRURO, TR4 9LT.

Thankyou.