

Researching Cornish Games

Hi there,

I'm at student Falmouth University, doing a project on creating a local Olympic games.

I'd like to find some interesting, unknown and bizarre sports that have ties to Falmouth or Cornwall, that can be celebrated.

I've looked at Cornish wrestling and hurling, and was thinking of including some oyster shucking and pasty eating.

I've thought about ones connected to the sea - surfing/sailing/rowing.

I was wondering if any of you there knew of any others, or had seen any competitions you thought deserved recognition.

Many Thanks

Eden
