(A 2 minute walk from Russell Square Underground Station)

On

Saturday 17th March 2018
12pm for 1pm

Dear Fellow Members and Friends,

The LCA Anniversary Dinner has had a venerable history, with the first being held in 1886 when a group of Helston men living in London organised a meal to celebrate the anticipated election of Walter Molesworth St Aubyn to Parliament.

Although he was not elected, they continued with the dinner and so began a long tradition of Cornish Association Dinners in London. Today, we celebrate this annual event with a special lunch.

We are very excited to announce that in 2018, we will hold our Annual Dining Event at a new, very central location - The Imperial Hotel in Russell Square. The reception will start at 12.00 noon, allowing time to socialise before we dine at 1.00 pm.

Dress for this occasion will continue as before with dinner jacket or lounge suit. Traditionally, chains of office are worn.

We look forward to sharing this most enjoyable occasion with you and your friends. To book, please complete the attached form and return it to the address below.

Best wishes,

Carol Goodwin
