

The John Harry Award

In December 2017, Gillian Hocking and Pam Winterbourne went to Cape Cornwall School to present 'The John Harry Award'.

John Harry, our President, died in March 2017, and it was suggested, and agreed, that he should not be forgotten. With this in mind the Society arranged to have an award presented annually to a child at Cape Cornwall School. The criteria being that the subject should be Cornish Culture.

The trophy is made of glass, and the following has been inscribed on it:-

A Chough

The John Harry Award
Presented for Special Achievement in Cornish Culture
In memory of a Cornish Bard (Kessenyans)

A true son of St Just

The Presentation was a special occasion in the presence of the whole school, and we were delighted to present the first recipient, Isabella Puddiphat, with the Award. Her work had been on the Levant Mine Disaster. The Award will be kept in school, and so Isabella was given a Federation of Old Cornwall badge, together with a certificate for her to keep.
