

Hi Tony

I would be very grateful if you could please pass on this link to your members, of a newly-launched Crowdfunder appeal raising funds to publish my biography of 'Cornwall's First Lady of Song', Brenda Wootton.

'Brenda - For the Love of Cornwall'

To publish a biography of legendary Cornish singer Brenda Wootton, copiously illustrated, with her full life story, timeline and other lists

www.crowdfunder.co.uk

I am Brenda's daughter, and have been working on the biography for some years - big lady, big subject! All the details are on the link page, and obviously the more support we can get at this stage, the better.

Do ask if you need any more information...

Many thanks
