

Madron OCS, AWEN Productions and the Madron History Group working together

I have been involved for nearly 2 years in preparing a full history of Trengwainton with AWEN and these are the outcomes from the successful project, hope you will be able to see the exhibition and any others at some stage.

- Home of Springs, Trengwainton Exhibition: 8 June – 28 July at the Exchange Gallery , Engine Room Penzance
- Talk and Book: Tuesday 3 July 2.00 pm – 3.30 pm at the Exchange Gallery. The book will be launched at this event! The talk is a part of the Penzance LitFest fringe festival.
- Film Screening of 'Home of Springs, Trengwainton'

Screenings are being arranged for the summer and autumn. Dates and times can be found by obtaining the newsletter on www.awen.org.uk or by email to barbara@awen.org.uk

Plus I am the liaison between the Madron OCS and the Madron History Group which is an offspring from Jane Howell's The Bewnans Kernow Penwith Points of View and the Taves an Tir projects.

They are holding the exhibition below and welcome any additions from Madron and the local area people living further up the county.

- Madron History Group World War 1 Exhibition Saturday 17 – Monday 19 November in the Billiard Room Landithy Hall; MADRON

Roy Blewett, OCS Recorder at Madron