

Julians Series Enquiry

Can anyone help please.

Response to website@oldcornwall.net

An acquaintance of mine in the USA is descended from Cornish stock - his grandparents emigrated from the Roche area just before World War I. The grandfather moved first, to obtain employment and get settled, and his intended bride remained here. While they were apart, his grandmother sent postcards of the Roche area to her future husband, and a number of them are entitled "Julians Series".

Could you possibly make enquiries of your members to see if they can shed any light on whether "Julians" were a local firm, possibly of photographers, or indeed any information at all would be very welcome.

Many thanks in advance, sincerely,

John Evans
